

The programme

In our evening sessions we shall be looking at the Bible's teaching on revival, learning more about historical times of great blessing, thanking Him for the continuing movement of His Spirit and praying for greater blessing for ourselves and our world. Guest speaker, Colin Leyshon, will be leading some sessions.

Revival -What is it?

We hear the opinion of Duncan Campbell who God used mightily in the Hebrides Revival, 1949-52.

The 18th century Evangelical Revival in Britain.

We learn how in a Britain described as a 'moral quagmire and a spiritual cesspit' God raised up George Whitefield as a field preacher in 1737 and then revealed His true Gospel to the clergyman John Wesley in 1738. Together with others these two travelled the length and breadth of Britain and it has been estimated that 25% of the population professed faith in Christ.

The Welsh Revivals.

To travel through Wales today we find non-conformist chapels everywhere. Most of these are now empty or used as private homes or business premises. What is the original of all these chapels?

What is God still doing today?

There will be opportunity to talk about this and to share personal experiences.

Haus Barnabas

We are located in the small village of Utzenfeld in the upper Wiese valley of the Black Forest just 30 miles from Basel from where you can be met at the airport or train station. There is excellent public transport beginning immediately outside our house and taking you to many places of interest and there will be plenty of time to enjoy the Black Forest, hopefully in autumn sunshine.

This is a view across Lake Titisee, one of several beautiful places to visit with your free bus pass. And of course there is always time for a coffee with a piece of the Black Forest speciality!
