

The Programme

with guest speaker Colin Leyshon.

The weekend begins with evening dinner on Thursday 29th March followed by an introductory session. On Good Friday and Easter Sunday mornings we will worship together and enjoy an appropriate message from the Scriptures. Then each evening and on Saturday and Monday mornings Colin will bring us a devotional message from the Scriptures. Afternoons will be free with the opportunity of group outings and walks in the beautiful southern Black Forest.

Introducing Colin Leyshon

Colin is well known to some of you as he has regularly given a devotional epilogue at our London reunions. He and his wife Bev are Welsh in origin but have lived in England for many years. Colin has this last year retired from more than 25 years pastoral ministry in Stanmore Chapel, Middlesex. They have three daughters and nine grandchildren, three of which they share with us, through their daughter Ruth and our son Geoff.

Haus Barnabas

is a Christian family guest house and retreat centre led by Pastor Len Holder, his wife Phyl with Tim & Deb Brooks and family.

We are located in the village of Utzenfeld in the Wiese valley, seen above which is just 30 miles from Basel and 20 miles from Freiburg and easily accessible.

For relaxation there are footpaths to suit every degree of fitness, cable cars up the mountains and excellent public transport and all guests receive a free bus and train pass for travel in the locality. Good exercise provides a wonderful excuse to indulge in the culinary specialities of the Black Forest!
