Items for PRAISE:

- * Praise for an excellent week with Marilyn Baker and Tracy Williamson. We had a full house of guests and the Sunday evening public concert was well attended by local people too.
- * Praise too that Marilyn's medical treatment from a specialist Christian doctor has gone well and she was invited to share the Gospel in song and testimony to a German audience near where she has been staying.
- * We have benefitted greatly this summer from fellowship with guests old and new and believe the blessings have been mutual for which we give God the glory
- * Tom and Esther's new school year has started well although Tom now has a much longer journey.
- * Praise for the opportunity for Len & Phyl to have a two-week break before the October 'Revival' programme. We travel to UK this week.

Items for PRAYER:

- * We have taken the step of allowing 'Booking.com' to advertise three of our rooms on their internet site. We have the ability of stipulating when these rooms are available for their clients and the hope is that in this way we will be able to gain the potential income from our guest rooms over a longer period of the year. Please pray God will overrule who comes to us via this channel, that we might be a good witness in every way and that the Christian atmosphere and testimony of Haus Barnabas will draw guests to Christ.
- * As we continue to plan for 2019 we are aware that there are many future factors that only God knows! Please pray for His guidance and wisdom in our planning.
- * Daniella and Simone continue to come to Bible Study enthusiastically, and Karin and Petra to the Sunday service. Your prayers for their blessing and growth of their trust and faith in the Lord Jesus is valued.
- * Len & Phyl both have health issues that we trust are not serious and can be dealt with. We have doctors' appointments in UK this month. There are signs that Phyl's kidneys aren't functioning properly and Len is getting considerable pain in his upper legs when standing. Please pray for healing and blessing.
- * Please also continue to pray for helpers, short and long term, and for income to carry us over the difficult winter months.
- * Please remember Tim & Deb and family as they keep things running while Len & Phyl are away for the first half of October and then again in November.
