

The Programme

Are you interested in discovering the history of the Reformation in Germany and Switzerland during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries?

Then why not join us for our Reformation Week, 21st - 28th October 2017.

The week begins with evening dinner on Saturday 21st Oct. followed by a film on Martin Luther by way of introduction to the Reformation.

The week's programme includes evening sessions led by Tim & Deb Brooks and illustrated with DVDs to prepare for three full day outings to visit historic reformation sites connected with the Reformers and early Anabaptists in Basel, Zürich, Constance and also Wildhaus, in the Swiss Alps, where the Swiss reformer Zwingli was born.

There will also be some free days to relax and enjoy the autumn beauty of the Black Forest.

Haus Barnabas

is a Christian family guest house and retreat centre led by Pastor Len Holder, his wife Phyl along with Tim & Deb Brooks and family.

Haus Barnabas is located in the village of Utzenfeld in the Wiese valley, seen here in the centre of the picture. We are easily accessible, just 30 miles from Basel and 20 miles from Freiburg

For relaxation there are footpaths to suit every degree of fitness, cable cars up the mountains and excellent public transport services. All guests receive a 'guest card' which gives free use of public transport in most of the Black Forest.

Guests coming for the "Reformation Week" may wish to book some extra days at the beginning or end in order to take full advantage of the opportunity to enjoy a break in the Black Forest.
